SENATOR M'CARTHY ASKS C.I.A. INQUIRY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)
—Senator Eugene J. McCarthy
called today for an investigation of the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The Minnesota Democrat said

in an interview that unless the Senate Foreign Relations Committee undertook such a study on its own he would seek a showdown vote in the committee on a formal resolution pro-tee on a formal resolution pro-posing such an inquiry.

Senator McCarthy said he would introduce a Senate reso-lution next week proposing "a full and complete inquiry" by the committee with respect to the effects of operations of the C.I.A. "on the foreign policy of the United States."

The added that to give the Senate a choice this resolution awould be followed by another calling for an inquiry by a blue-ribbon committee made up of ribbon committee made up of Senators from Foreign Relations and other standing committees.

The Foreign Relations Committee, as well as the Senate, its divided over the advisability of investigating the activities of the ultra-secret agency. The committee, Senator McCarthy said, has discussed a study, but had made to decision.

had made no decision.
